We are hiring !

RPF is looking for a project manager in Labrador City

You are motivate and a looking for new challenge ? you wish to join a dynamique team ? Send us your resume at recrutement@rpfelectrique.com or by fax at 418 536-5729.

Under the supervision of the operations coordinator the electrical project manager will be located on site in Labrador city and the main tasks are to:

- Support the electrical supervisor in all health and safety documentation requested;
- Support the electrical supervisor in the global coordination of a project, man power logistics, transportation logistics and purchasing;
- Manage the cost performance of a project;
- Support the estimation department for site visits and any needed information to quote a job in the goal to maintain a volume of buisiness;
- Any other related duties.

Qualifications and professional qualifications are:

- Diploma related to the electrical field;
- Knowledge of industrial electrical installations;
- Must be able to read and understand electrical drawings and technical terms;
- Must have an advanced level in English; bilingual if possible
- Must be comfortable with a computer, emails and project management software;
- Sense of organization;
- Must be able to work with a team and be capable of interacting with the clients.

We are waiting for your application !